You are Invited to Network with Our Elected Officials!

Meet Your Elected Officials event is a unique opportunity for our members to connect directly with the elected leaders who shape the decisions affecting our local communities. Open dialogue and engagement between businesses, organizations and non-profits with our elected officials is crucial for our community to thrive. Join us as we come together to network, share ideas, and build stronger connections with our public officials.

Join us for networking and hors d'oeuvres.
A cash bar will also be available for your convenience.

Attendees are $35 per person and must register below.
